Greetings from the General Manager

Since the last monthly enews the Board of Deaf Sports Australia (DSA) has distributed a new quarterly 'From the Boardroom' update. The feedback from this update to both the email and Auslan presentation has been very positive. Thank you to everybody for your comments.

Over the last few weeks the following highlights:

- * Six individuals have shown interest on being on the DSA Board of Directors – the DSA Appointments Committee is currently working through and analysing the skills that these individuals are offering;
- * The appointments committee are using the recently completed Board Evaluation Report plus the Board Skill Audit that highlight the strengths, priorities and weaknesses of the organisation in working through the expression of interest;
- * As reported previously there are now very few exceptions of NDSOs who have not agreed to moving to a National Deaf Sports Committee structure. Recently we met the Board of Deaf
